

LES SAINTES

While in Guadeloupe a visit to Les Saintes is almost mandatory! With its 3000 inhabitants, these are the most well-known islands belonging to Guadeloupe. Les Saintes has received much attention for its beautiful beaches, the calm and laid-back atmosphere, and a local genuine culture.

Our full day excursion to Les Saintes is perfect for the whole family! We go by bus down to the small-town Trois Rivières from where the boat departs. After a 30-minute boat ride we arrive to the main island of Les Saintes - Terre de Haut. Here, you can spend the time as you choose. Our guide will hand out maps of the island, present his favorite spots and restaurants and answer to all your questions. For lunch there is a big variety of local restaurants, many of which has a very good reputation on Guadeloupe.
