

VISIT SAINT-ANNE

Do you fancy “liming” along the white beaches of Grande-Terre? A day in Sainte-Anne means a quiet day. This is a day dedicated to enjoy the atmosphere together with local families relaxing in the calm waters along the powdery white coral beach in the bay to the rhythms of Zouk music flowing from the various restaurants along the shore. Sainte-Anne has something to offer everyone, but to spend the day along the beautiful beach is recommended.

Once there you can allocate your time as desired, lounging on the sand or shop fruit, spices and punch among the market stalls. Stress is anyway banned, so take time to enjoy a bit of Caribbean food and the laid-back lifestyle. With its shallow beach is Sainte-Anne is also a popular destination for families with smaller children who also want to have a relaxing day outside the hotel resort.

The beach in Sainte-Anne is considered by many to be one of Guadeloupe’s most beautiful. The nearly flour fine, white sandy beach combined with the shallow turquoise waters of the bay outside makes this beach a must. This is a real favorite spot, both for tourists but also for local families who come here for a quiet and relaxing day at the beach.
